Certificate of Appreciation

This is to certify that Alreem Albdouli has been an active member of the Indian Welfare & Tourist Helping Trust since 2022.

During this period, Alreem Albdouli has made significant contributions by conducting webinars on computer technology, including applications, advanced technologies such as AI, programming, and basic machine learning. Additionally, she has led educational sessions on women's health and hygiene, addressing topics such as menstrual health and stress management for young girls. She also offers English and math classes to underprivileged students, providing invaluable support to their educational development.

Her ongoing dedication and impactful service to the Trust are highly commendable. This certificate is issued in recognition of her continued commitment and contributions to the Trust's mission.

Given this 30 day of April, 2023.
